

Mary F. Jillson to Wed
2nd Lt. Herbert Coursen

Wilkes-Barre, Pa. — Mr. and Mrs. John Dalzell Jillson of Forty Fort, formerly of Rye, N. Y., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Francis, to 2nd Lieutenant Herbert Randolph Coursen, Jr., U. S. A. F., son of Mr. and Mrs. Coursen of Short Hills, N. J.

Miss Jillson was graduated from Rye Schools. A former student at Smith College, she is now attending the Katharine Gibbs School in Boston. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Hancock Wynne of Hornell, N. Y., and Mrs. Robert Faulkner Jillson of Dunkirk, N. Y., and the late Mr. Jillson.

Lieutenant Coursen, who was graduated from Amherst College last June, is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity and Sphinx Junior Honorary Society. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel White Huntoon of East Orange, N. J., and the late Mr. and Mrs. Amos Whitfield Coursen of Newark.

Mrs. Albert Nickerson and daughter, Christine, of 431 Grace Church Street spent several days last week visiting colleges in New England after skiing for six days at Stowe, Vt. Her son, Albert W. Nickerson, was with them at Stowe and has since returned to his studies at Exeter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Seward and son, Allin, of 20 Ridgewood Drive, will leave on Monday on a week's motor trip to Williamsburgh, Va. and Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Tierney, Rye Beach Avenue, have returned from a two-week holiday in Palm Beach, Fla.

Miss Mary F. Jillson

Mrs. L. Ivan Underwood and children, Ian, Joanna, and Virginia, of Grace Church Street spent four days last week at Williamsburg, Va., and Charlottesville, N. C. They were accompanied by Mrs. Harold B. Adams of Central Avenue. Mr. Underwood's mother, Mrs. John Underwood, has left after a stay of several months in Rye to visit with her son, George Underwood, in Middletown, Ohio.

Hayward Torrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Torrey of Stuyvesant Avenue, is spending his spring vacation in Florida and Cuba as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Erik Hazelhoff and son, Erik Jr., of Rye. They plan to return about April 22.

Mrs. Charles Denny and children, Alison, Charles, and Christine, of 430 Park Avenue spent last week skiing at Mount Tremblant in Canada. They were accompanied by Sis Hibberd and Joanne Gorman.

Celebrated Birthday

A family party was held last week in celebration of the birthday of Mrs. Milton Guiterman of Rye Colony at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ivan Underwood of 365 Grace Church Street. Among the guests were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Vinton, and their children of Dogwood Lane. Also present was another daughter, Mrs. Vsevoid Baikow, and her children, David and Tanya, who left on Monday for their home in Beaumont, Tex., after visiting here for ten days.

Mrs. Richard H. McCann of Grace Church Street spent several days this week at the McCann's summer home at Round Pond, Me. On Friday Mr. McCann attended a Harvard Law School class reunion. Their daughter, Mrs. Jerome Preston and her baby son, Richard McCann Preston, of Cambridge, Mass., are expected to arrive on April 13 for a visit. The baby will remain with his grandparents while his mother is in Cleveland where she will be in the wedding party of her former Wellesley College roommate, Miss Ellen Coons. Miss Coons will be married in Shaker Heights on April 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Atwater and son, Billy, of Barrington, R. I., are spending the week end with Mrs. Atwater's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Haselton of 355 Grace Church Street. The Haseltons entertained at a dinner party before the 3rd Twig movie premiere on Friday night.
